All Al-Anon Family Group (AFG) meetings welcome anyone who believes that his/her life has been affected by someone else's drinking, either today or in the past. OPEN AFG meetings allow attendance by people who are not friends and friends of alcoholics, but are interested in learning more about AFG; those attending may include students and professionals who work with alcoholic families.

Generally Al-Anon Family Group meetings are CLOSED, limited to members and prospective members, giving them the freedom to share and listen to the experience, strength and hope of one another on a confidential and anonymous basis.

District 2 Al-Anon Family Groups list groups in this schedule at their request and there is an informal agreement that the group will abide by Al-Anon Family Group Traditions and keep its doors open to any Al-Anon Family Group Member. However, listing in this directory does not constitute approval of any group's manner of practicing the Al-Anon Family Group Program. If the group you attend is not right for you, please try another group. There is help and hope available in Al-Anon Family Groups.

District 2 Group Representative Meetings
